Government of India
Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution
Department of Food and Public Distribution
(Directorate of Sugar & Vegetable Oils)

Krishi Bhawan, New Delhi.
Dated:- 08th May, 2023

To,

CEOs/MDs of all Sugar Mills.

Subject:- Timely filling of online P-II before 10th of every month.

Sir/Madam,

Please refer to this Directorate of Sugar and Vegetable Oils's various reminders through order of monthly stock holding limit in domestic market on the subject cited above vide which Directorate has time and again requested sugar mills to register themselves on the NSWS portal (<https://www.nsws.gov.in>) and fill their P-II form by 10th of every month.

2. In view of the above, all the sugar mills have been advised to strictly adhere to the timeline of filling online P-II on NSWS portal by 10th of every month. In case sugar mill does not fill the online P-II on the NSWS portal for the month of April, 2023 (to be filed by 10th May, 2023); such sugar mills will not be allotted any monthly release quota for the month of June, 2023.

3. It is reiterated that from June, 2023 and onwards, the calculation of monthly stock holding limit will be done on the basis of data filled in P-2 form of NSWS portal only. Further, it is also informed that there is no option for any correction in the new P-II form on NSWS portal; therefore, sugar mills are advised to carefully fill their data on the NSWS portal and no request for correction of data on NSWS portal will be entertained.

Yours faithfully,

(Sudhir Yadav)
